 - (b) they do not confer to their holders the right to receive the profits which the Company resolves to distribute by way of an ordinary dividend, but they do entitle their holders to the distribution of available reserves;
 - (c) they cannot be transferred except for transfers: (i) through succession as a result of death; (ii) in favour of companies directly and/or indirectly controlled by the holder of special shares pursuant to Article 2359, paragraph 1, nos. 1 and 2, of the Italian Civil Code or IAS 27; or (iii) concerning, with respect to each shareholder, a percentage not exceeding 20% (twenty per cent) of the B Shares held by them from time to time and, in any event, not exceeding – in the aggregate – 20% (twenty per cent) of the outstanding B Shares. For the purposes of these Bylaws, 'transfer' or

‘to transfer’ means any agreement or deed between living persons, whether free of charge or for a consideration, the effect or object of which is to transfer to another person, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, even temporarily, the ownership of the Shares or any other right, interest or title relating thereto, including but not limited to: (i) sale and purchase, donation, exchange, carry-over, contribution to a company in exchange for an increase in the latter’s capital, transfers resulting from a non-proportional merger or demerger; (ii) the execution of swap agreements, securities lending agreements or other agreements involving the transfer, including temporary or forward, in whole or in part, of any right or interest, including non-pecuniary, arising out of or in any way connected with the ownership of the Shares;

- (e) they shall be automatically converted into Ordinary Shares, in the conversion ratio of 6 (six) Ordinary Shares for each B Share, without the need for any manifestation of will on the part of their holders and without any change in the amount of the share capital, it being understood that such conversion shall entail a reduction in the value of the implied par value in accounting terms of the Ordinary Shares and, for conversions not involving 100% (one hundred per cent) of the B Shares, in proportion to the value of the implied par value in accounting terms of the B Shares:
 - (i) the second trading day (meaning the day on which the markets are open for trading according to the trading calendar established annually by Borsa Italiana S.p.A.) following the effective date of the merger by incorporation of ALP.I S.p.A. into the Company, which became effective on 18 April 2019 (the ‘Merger’), to the extent of 1/6 of the total number of B Shares issued on the Effective Date;

In the event of the distribution of extraordinary dividends through the distribution of available reserves and of the consequent decrease in the value of the shareholders’ equity per Ordinary Share of the Company, the value of EUR 13.50 referred to in point (ii) above shall be reduced in proportion to such decrease in value by the board of directors, expressly authorising each of its members, severally, to file with the Companies' Register the updated text of these bylaws.

It is understood that following 60 (sixty) months from the effective date of the Merger, any remaining B Shares, that have not already been converted according to the above cases, shall be automatically converted into no. 1 Ordinary Share, without any change in the amount of the share capital.

- (f) If, during the period included between the effective date of the Merger and the last day of the 60th (sixtieth) month starting from the effective date of the Merger, a takeover bid concerning Ordinary Shares takes place, the holders of the B Shares, in order to adhere to the aforesaid takeover bid, shall be entitled to convert, in whole or in part, the B Shares held by them into Ordinary Shares at a conversion ratio of 6 (six) Ordinary Shares for each B Share. In such case, the conversion of the B Shares in the context of a takeover bid shall be carried out in the period between the first and the 15th (fifteenth) calendar day following the publication of the notice of the bidder concerning the obligation to launch the takeover bid.

5.8 C Shares carry the same rights as the Ordinary Shares with the sole exception of the following:

- (a) they do not confer to their holders the right to vote in the Company's ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings;
- (b) they do not confer to their holders the right to receive the profits which the Company resolves to distribute by way of an ordinary dividend, but they do entitle their holders to the distribution of available reserves;
- (c) they cannot be transferred except for transfers: (i) through succession as a result of death; (ii) in favour of companies directly and/or indirectly controlled by the holder of special shares pursuant to Article 2359, paragraph 1, nos. 1 and 2, of the Italian Civil Code or IAS 27; or (iii) concerning, with respect to each shareholder, a percentage not exceeding 20% (twenty per cent) of the C Shares held by them from time to time and, in any event, not exceeding – in the aggregate – 20% (twenty per cent) of the outstanding C Shares;
- (d) in the event of the winding-up of the Company, they shall entitle their holders to have their portion of the liquidation assets liquidated as a subordinated claim with respect to the holders of the Ordinary Shares and of the B Shares;
- (e) they shall be automatically converted into Ordinary Shares, in the conversion ratio of 6 (six) Ordinary Shares for each C Share, without the need for any manifestation of will on the part of their holders and without any change in the amount of the share capital, it being understood that such conversion shall entail a reduction in the value of the implied par value in accounting terms of the Ordinary Shares and, for conversion cases not involving 100% (one hundred per cent) of the C Shares, in proportion to the value of the implied par value in accounting terms of the C Shares within 60 (sixty) months from the effective date of the Merger:

- (i) 25% (twenty-five per cent) of the total number of C Shares issued on the effective date of the Merger, in the event that the official price of the Ordinary Shares traded on an Italian regulated market for at least 15 (fifteen) days, even if not consecutive, out of 30 (thirty) consecutive trading days, is greater than or equal to EUR 13.50 per Ordinary Share;
- (ii) 50% (fifty per cent) of the total number of C Shares issued on the effective date of the Merger, in the event that the official price of the Ordinary Shares traded on an Italian regulated market for at least 15 (fifteen) days, even if not consecutive, out of 30 (thirty) consecutive trading days, is greater than or equal to EUR 14.00 per Ordinary Share;
- (iii) 25% (twenty-five per cent) of the total number of C Shares issued on the effective date of the Merger, in the event that the official price of the Ordinary Shares traded on an Italian regulated market for at least 15 (fifteen) days, even if not consecutive, out of 30 (thirty) consecutive trading days, is greater than or equal to EUR 14.50 per Ordinary Share;

In the event of any adjustment to the value of the Ordinary Shares of the Company communicated by Borsa Italiana S.p.A., the values of EUR 13.50, EUR 14.00 and Euro 14.50 referred to in points (i), (ii) and (iii) shall be consequently adjusted according to the 'coefficient K' communicated by Borsa Italiana S.p.A.

It is understood that: (A) the events under points (i), (ii) and (iii) above may also occur cumulatively; and (B) following 60 (sixty) months from the effective date of the Merger, any remaining C Shares not already converted according to the above cases shall be cancelled, without any change in the amount of the share capital. In such event, as a result of the cancellation of the C Shares, the board of directors shall: (a) record the cancellation in the shareholders' register; (b) file with the Companies' Register, pursuant to Article 2436, paragraph 6, of the Italian Civil Code, the text of the bylaws with the amendment of the total number of Shares, with the elimination of the clauses of the bylaws that have lapsed as a result of the non-existence of outstanding C Shares; (c) perform all notices and declarations that may be necessary or appropriate.

- 5.9 As a result of the automatic conversion of the B Shares and C Shares into Ordinary Shares, the board of directors shall: (a) record the conversion in the shareholders' register, cancelling, as the case may be, the B Shares and the C Shares and the issuing of the Ordinary Shares; (b) file with the Companies' Register, pursuant to Article 2436, paragraph 6, of the Italian Civil Code, the text of the bylaws with the amendment of the total number of Shares and more precisely of the number of the different categories of Shares – if any – into which the share capital is divided, as well as with the elimination of the clauses of the bylaws that have lapsed as a result of the conversion of all of the B Shares and/or C Shares into Ordinary Shares in accordance with this Article 5; (c) perform all notices and declarations that may be necessary or appropriate.

- 5.10 In the event of an increase in share capital, the right to subscribe the Ordinary Shares to be issued shall be granted to all shareholders (unless the relevant pre-emption right is excluded in accordance with the law or is not granted pursuant to the law) in proportion to and in relation to the Shares – whether Ordinary Shares, B Shares or C Shares – held by each of them at the time in which the capital increase is performed. In such event, the approval of the relevant resolution, pursuant to Article 2376 of the Italian Civil Code, by the special meeting of the holders of B Shares or of C Shares shall be excluded in any event. Under no circumstances may the Company proceed with the issue of new B Shares or C Shares.

- 12.2 Directors shall be appointed for a period of 3 (three) financial years, or for the period, in any case not exceeding 3 (three) financial years, established at the time of their appointment, and they may be re-elected. The directors' terms of office shall expire on the date of the shareholders' meeting called to approve the financial statements for the last year of their term of office, without prejudice to the causes of termination and forfeiture provided for by law and these Bylaws.
- 12.3 Directors shall cease to hold office in the cases provided for by law.
- 12.4 All the directors must meet the requirements of professionalism, integrity and independence to the extent and within the terms provided for by the applicable laws and regulations in force at the time. The appointment of the board of directors shall also be made in compliance with the laws and regulations in force at the time and with the provisions dictated by the codes of conduct on corporate governance that may have been adopted by the Company, relating to gender balance.

Article 13. Appointment of directors

- 13.1 The board of directors shall be appointed by the shareholders' meeting on the basis of slates submitted by the shareholders, in accordance with the procedure set out in the following paragraphs.
- 13.2 Directors shall be appointed on the basis of slates submitted by shareholders in accordance with the laws and regulations in force at the time, in which candidates must be numerically listed up to 11 (eleven). Slates for the appointment of directors may be submitted by holders of Shares that, at the time of submitting the slate, hold – individually or jointly – a number of Shares at least equal to the quota established by CONSOB pursuant to the applicable laws and regulations.
- 13.3 Each slate containing more than 3 (three) candidates must include a number of persons – in compliance with the applicable law – that meet the requirements of independence prescribed by the applicable laws and regulations (including the regulations of the Italian regulated market organised and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A.) and the codes of conduct on corporate governance adopted by the Company (if applicable).
- 13.4 With respect to the period of application of the applicable laws and regulations in force at the time, concerning gender balance and in compliance with the provisions in this regard of the codes of conduct relating to corporate governance that are adopted by the Company (if any), each slate that submits more than 3 (three) candidates must also include candidates belonging to the less represented gender, at least in the minimum proportion required by the applicable laws and regulations in force at the time, or by the aforementioned codes of conduct relating to corporate governance, as specified in the notice of call.

- 13.5 The slates shall also contain, also as annexes (i) information on the identity of the shareholders that have submitted them, indicating the total number of Shares they hold, proven by a specific declaration issued by an intermediary; (ii) a declaration by the shareholders, other than those that hold, even jointly, a controlling or relevant majority interest, certifying the absence of any association relationship with the latter, even indirectly, pursuant to the laws and regulations in force at the time; (iii) comprehensive information on the personal and professional characteristics of the candidates; (iv) a declaration by the candidates containing their acceptance of their candidacy and certification, under their own responsibility, that there are no causes of ineligibility and incompatibility, as well as that the prerequisites required for holding office are met; (v) any declaration that they are eligible to qualify as independent directors pursuant to applicable laws and the codes of conduct on corporate governance adopted by the Company (if any); (vi) any other declaration, information and/or document required by the applicable laws and regulations in force at the time.
- 13.6 Any slate for which the provisions of the preceding paragraphs have not been complied with shall be deemed not to have been submitted. Appointed directors must notify the Board of Directors without delay of any loss of independence requirements, as well as of the occurrence of causes of ineligibility or incompatibility.
- 13.7 The slates shall be filed within the terms provided for by the laws and regulations in force at the time (which shall be indicated in the notice of call of the Shareholders' Meeting) at the Company's registered office or by remote means of communication as indicated in the notice of call, and made available to the public within the terms and in the manner provided for by the laws and regulations in force at the time.
- 13.8 Each shareholder, shareholders who are parties to a shareholders' agreement relating to the Company pursuant to Article 122 of the TUF, the controlling entity, subsidiaries and jointly controlled entities and other entities between which there is an association relationship, even indirectly, pursuant to the laws and regulations in force at the time, including regulatory provisions, may not submit – or participate in the submission of, even through a third party or trust company – more than one slate or vote for more than one slate. A candidate may only be present on one slate, under penalty of ineligibility.
- 13.9 If two or more slates are submitted, after the shareholders' meeting has determined the total number of directors to be elected, all the candidates from the slate which obtained the majority of the votes cast by the shareholders, in the number determined by the Shareholders' Meeting less one, shall be elected in the numerical order in which they are indicated on such slate; from the slate which obtained the second highest number of votes cast and which is not linked in any way whatsoever, even indirectly, with the shareholders that submitted or voted for the slate that obtained the highest number of votes, the candidate in first place on that slate shall be drawn and elected, taking into account the numerical order of listing.

- 13.10 If, following the application of the procedure described above, the minimum number of independent directors required by law and by the regulatory provisions applicable from time to time, as well as by the codes of conduct on corporate governance adopted by the Company (if any) is not appointed, the candidate who does not meet the independence requirements and who was elected last in the slate that obtained the highest number of votes shall be replaced by the first unelected candidate on the same slate who meets the independence requirements set forth by these Bylaws. If this procedure does not ensure the presence of the necessary number of directors meeting the independence requirements, the replacement shall take place by a Shareholders' Meeting resolution adopted with the majorities provided for by law, subject to the submission of candidates meeting the said requirements.
- 13.11 If, in the manner set out above, the provisions on gender balance set out in Article 13.4 above are not complied with, the candidates of the most represented gender elected as last in numerical order from the slate that obtained the majority of votes shall, where applicable, be replaced with the first non-elected candidates, taken from the same slate, belonging to the other gender; if such replacement cannot be performed, in order to ensure compliance with the above provisions on gender balance, the missing directors shall be elected by the Shareholders' Meeting in the manner and with the majorities provided for by law, without applying the voting slate.
- 13.12 In the event of a tie between slates, a new vote shall be taken by the Shareholders' Meeting, which shall decide according to the majorities provided for by law. The candidates obtaining the majority of votes shall be elected.
- 13.13 If only one slate is submitted, the shareholders' meeting shall vote on it and, only if it obtains the majority required for the relevant shareholders' meeting resolution, shall the candidates listed in numerical order be elected as directors, up to the number established the shareholders' meeting, in such a way so as to ensure compliance with the minimum requirements on the independence of directors and gender balance provided for by the applicable laws and regulations and by these Bylaws.
- 13.14 If no slates are submitted, or if the number of directors elected on the basis of the slates submitted is less than the number determined by the shareholders' meeting, the members of the board of directors shall be appointed by the shareholders' meeting itself with the majorities prescribed by law.
- 13.15 The candidate indicated as such in the slate that obtained the highest number of votes or in the only slate presented shall be elected chairman of the board of directors. Failing this, the chairman shall be appointed by the shareholders' meeting with the ordinary majorities prescribed by law or, failing this, by the board of directors.
- 13.16 If one or more directors cease to hold office, for whatever reason, their replacement shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Article 2386 of the Italian Civil Code by co-opting the candidate placed on the same slate as the outgoing director or, in any case, by another candidate chosen by the board of directors, subject to the obligation to comply with the minimum number of independent directors established above and the applicable provisions on gender balance.

- 13.17 The voting slate procedure shall apply only in case of appointment of the entire board of directors. Therefore, the appointment of directors, in any case other than the renewal of the entire board, shall be made by the shareholders' meeting with the majorities prescribed by law, subject to the obligation to comply with the minimum number of independent directors provided for by the laws and regulations in force at the time and the applicable provisions on gender balance; the directors so appointed shall cease to hold office at the same time as with those directors holding office at the time of their appointment.
